THE TERROR OF THE CUMBERLAND The Sea Serpent Said to Have Been Seen Again

Notwithstanding the grave doubts experienced by the incredulous in regard to the wild stories of the strange monster which is said to have been seen recently in the Cumberland near this city, there are others who allege that such a creature actually exists, and that he is not only an meatiable gormandizer, but a monster of such hideous mien that an ordinary gorgon would hide away before him.

A lady living on the Edgefield side of the river, positively asserts that on day before yesterday she saw the monster rise out of the river and deliberately close its ponderous jaws upon an unoffending porker that was grazing upon the bank. There is a perfect reign of terror among be juveniles, and anxious mammas have only to relate the story of the sea serpent to keep them away from the river. Should any of our readers get a good look at this strange introder, we hope to hear from them, as the stories already in circulation have led many to believe that they may possibly have some sort of foun-

Unsolicited Pap.—The Legislature, jestons of the augmenting power of Gov. Brownlow, in passing the indemnity bill put in a clause providing that the appointment of Claim Commissioners should be made only upon recommendation of the representatives of each county in the General Assembly. The result is that many of the Commissioners appointed have resigned, neither wishing to accept the three dollars a day, nor having been notified that they were to be appointed. Many petitions are coming in, urging appointments to fill vacancies, but only candidates recommended by Senators and Representatives receive any attention.

What's the Matter?

To the Editors of the Union and Disputch, The advocates of the purchase of S loud Hill by the corporation say, that ' the enhancement of the value of the surrounding lots, if sold by the city, would probably reimburse the cost." If so, why on't the owners present the apex of the hill to the city, and sell the surrounding ots to those who are so anxious to locate near the new park? I hold a few past due coupons of the bonds of the city which the Treasurer of the corporation says he cannot pay, because the treasury is empty. Better pay our debts and wait till we get a little forehanded, I think, before pitching into real estate which we don't need. A TAX-PAYER WHO PAYS.

CONCORDIA ENTERTAINMENTS .- We are glad to announce that the preparations have been completed by the Concordia Club, to present two dramatic entertainments on Monday and Tuesday nights next, at their Hall, corner Cherry and Cedar streets. The first will be the Corsican Brothers; and the second the extravaganza of Pocahontas, as revised and vastly aproved by our well known friend John Happy. The scenery has been expressly prepared for the occasion, and the caste of characters embraces the dramatic talent of the Club. In the general dearth of the times the public of Nashville owe to the Concordians a debt of gratitude for affording them an occasion for so rich a treat, which should be at least partially liquidated by filling the Hall to its utmost capacity-which we make no question will

THE Press and Times of yesterday says only one-third of the copies of the Campaigns of Gen. Forest that were subscribed for in Memphis, were received and paid for, and slurringly adds, "Such is popularity." History will not take the measure of General Forrest by the number of copies of this book the people who admire him so much, were unable to pay for, because they have been impoverished in the extreme by the rapacity and outragecus oppression of bummers and interlopers. We are gratified to know that upwards of four hundred copies of the book were sub seribed for in this city within a few weeks and that only one man has been found to refuse to receive and pay for it.

WHO ARE LOYAL.

A "Little Brief Authority" in the Counties-Claim Commissioners Declare the Supporters of Andrew Johnson Disloyal and Not Entitled to Indem

Some of the little three-dollars-a-day Claim Commissioners, appointed by the Governor under the law for indemnity to loyal men for property lost during the war, are over-reaching Brownlow himself in assumption of authority, as the letter which we publish below, from Wayne county, to the General Claim Commissioner, will show. We give the communication without the names of the parties signing it :

WAYNESBORO, TENN., April 13, 1868.— HON. THOMAS WATERS, NASHVILLE, TENN.—Sir: A number of Federal solliers and Union citizens of this county, who have been unconditional Union men from the beginning, but who are now Conservative men, are wishing to prove their claims under the indemnity act. The mmissioners for this county, however, decide that no man is "loyal at the presen time" unless he is in favor of the Congressional policy and against the policy of the Only juvenile clubs are now playing, and the "Old Zeke," "Ku-Kinx," "Montgomery Bell," and few others now rule the roost. There was a big effort to get up a meeting of the Phonix Club, on Wednesday night, and a big belt for the best player was stuck in a show window on Cherry street, but only one man of the whole Club made his appearance at "the meeting." article of the 14th instant "Money is sharp at 7 per cent. on call to best borrowers, upon prime collaterals. The feverish condition of the share market makes lenders more cantious as to colaterals and margios. Rumors of an unsual demand by the depositors of the Third Avenue Savings Bank have been current and the public mind disturbed by other rumors in regard to financial affairs. The reports when traced to their source have small foundation; but they have unsettled the market for money and stocks, and inluced unusual caution. For commercial paper the rates are 7@9 per cent., with cond-class bills at 10@11 per cent. GENERAL MARKETS.

NASHVILLE, April 17, 1868. Corron.-The cotton market was exceedingly dull to-day. The small stock on hand, the small amount put on the market and the very unfavorable dispatches from Liverpool and New York all combined to make it one of the dullest days of the seasoa.
